Dear Ladies,

After breast surgery, few things are as important for a woman as having choices. Today, there are many choices that will give you the confidence to pursue life with energy and enthusiasm. Some women may select reconstruction or choose to wear an external breast form (a safe, non-surgical option that has become the choice for millions of women).

Elegant Essentials was created to offer the newest and most innovative breast forms, surgical brassieres and all assorted products in the most comfortable and private setting. The choice is now yours!

We look forward to serving your special needs.
